

Acacia dealbata (Blue/Silver Wattle)

Southern Australian States

It is a fast-growing evergreen tree or shrub, typically a pioneer species after fire. Flowering occurs mainly during August to October but can extend from July to November. Cold tolerant species.

Type: Tree to 15+m
Aspect: Full Sun/Part Shade
Soil: Adaptable
Habitat: Dry Sclerophyll

Special features:

- Attracts –
  - Bees
  - Birds
  - Possums
- Erosion Control
- Frost Tolerant
- Timber Tree
- Windbreaks

