

Acacia disparrima (Hickory Wattle)

Dark grey bark, blue/green foliage, masses of cream or yellow flower spikes to 7cm long, in January to May. Strongly-veined pods, woody, flat, often twisted, to 10cm x 20mm. Hardy, fast growing and adaptable.

Type: Tree to 15m
Aspect: Full sun
Soil: Adaptable
Habitat: Dry Sclerophyll

Special features:

- Attracts –
 - Bees
 - Birds
 - Butterflies
 - Possums
- Bush Tucker
- Creek Species
- Drought Tolerant
- Frost Tolerant
- Salt Tolerant
- Sandstone or Shale Area