

Acacia oshanesii (Irish Wattle)

Graceful shrub or small tree with pendulous branches of attractive foliage and lovely sweet scented lemon yellow 7mm ball-type flowers throughout the year. Leaves bipinnate, to 10cm long, new growth yellowish. Pods flat, to 7cm x 10mm, hairy. Fast growing and adaptable.

Type: Tree 6-15m
Aspect: Full sun/shade
Soil: Adaptable
Habitat: Adaptable

Special features:

- Attracts –
 - Bees
 - Birds
 - Butterflies
- Drought Tolerant
- Frost Tolerant