

Acmena hemilampra subsp. Hemilampra (Broad-leaved Lillipilli)

Glossy, dark green leaves with red young foliage and greyish brown flaky trunk. Fluffy white flowers from October to January, white succulent edible/sour fruit to 20mm, from May to August. The trunk is flanged or buttressed in larger trees, with red brown bark. Tolerates mild frost. Suits large gardens, or indoor plant when small.

Type: Tree to 15+m
Aspect: Full sun
Soil: Moist/well-drained
Habitat: Dry Sclerophyll

Special features:

- Attracts –
 - Birds
 - Butterflies
- Bush Tucker
- Mild Frost Tolerant
- Shade Tree