

Argyrodendron actinophyllum (Black Booyong)

Large buttressed tree north to Gympie district. Leaves alternate, palmately compound, with 5-9 leaflets, each to 16cm, paler below. Domatia prominent. White, 5-petalled, bell-shaped flowers to 7mm, in terminal panicles, in autumn. Dry, brown, winged seed capsules to 12mm, in clusters of 2-4, or single. Host to many epiphytes and vines that climb their way to the light high in the canopy of the forest.

Type: Tree to 15+m
Aspect: Part Shade
Soil: Fertile
Habitat: Dry Sclerophyll

Special features:

- Attracts –
  - Bees
  - Birds
  - Butterflies
- Frost Tolerant