

Argyrodendron trifoliolatum (White Booyong)

Large, buttressed, rainforest tree. Leaves alternate, with 3-5 leaflets, each to 14cm long, margins undulate, silvery-brown to silvery-grey below. White, 5-petaled, bell-shaped flowers to 5mm, winter to spring, are in great numbers. Fruit a brown, scaly seed with thin silvery-brown wings (a samara), 3cm long, borne in clusters. Ripe in summer.

Type: Tree to 15+m
Aspect: Full/filtered sun
Soil: Fertile
Habitat: Dry Sclerophyll

Special features:

- Attracts –
 - Birds
 - Butterflies
- Street Tree
- Timber Tree