

Banksia integrifolia (Coastal Banksia)

Widespread large shrub with attractive stiff, dark green, whorled leaves with silver undersides, 20cm x 35mm. Flower brushes pale yellow, to 15cm, in mid-summer and mid-winter. Woody seed cones remain on tree seed shed at maturity. Flowers are nectar source. Silky oak type timber and cut flowers.

Banksia integrifolia
(Coastal Banksia)

Type: Shrub/Tree 4-10m
Aspect: Full sun
Soil: Variable
Habitat: Open Forest
Understorey

Special features:

- Attracts –
 - Bees
 - Birds
 - Possums
- Bush Tucker
- Clay Tolerant
- Drought Tolerant
- Frost Tolerant
- Salt Tolerant
- One Variety Creek/Seaside