

Brachychiton australis (Broad Leaved Bottletree)

A very large bottle tree which is a low-water consumption tree. It has star-shaped light-green leaves and a stout trunk. In April, it sheds its leaves and wears clusters of creamy-white flowers.

Type: Tree 5-8m
Aspect: Full Sun/Part Shade
Soil: Adaptable/Rocky
Habitat: Dry Sclerophyll

Special features:

- Attracts –
 - Birds
 - Butterflies
- Bush Tucker Plant
- Drought Tolerant
- Frost Tolerant
- Non-Invasive Roots
- Shade Tree
- Windbreak