

Callistemon pearsonii (Blackdown Bottlebrush)

A compact, spreading shrub, the leaves of which are linear, leathery and topped with a sharp point. The flower spikes are about four cm long by five cm wide and are deep red with spectacular golden anthers. Makes an excellent low hedge.

Type: Shrub to 1m
Aspect: Full Sun
Soil: Well-drained
Habitat: Dry Sclerophyll

Special features:

- Attracts –
 - Bees
 - Birds
- Drought Tolerant