

Carex appressa (Tall Sedge)

A dense tufted, grass-like sedge with an arching habit. The sharp leaves will readily cut skin. Narrow grass-like leaves, bright green in colour with finely serrated margins up to 1m long and 6mm wide. The stems are triangular with finely serrated margins. Flowers August to January. Fruit are small black or dark brown nuts up to 3mm in size.

Type: Grass to 1m
Aspect: Shade
Soil: Moist
Habitat: Riparian

Special features:

- Attracts –
  - Birds
  - Butterflies
- Revegetation Plant