

Cassia brewsteri (Leichhardt Bean)

Small tree with bushy habit. Glossy lanceolate leaves, pinnate, with 2-6 paired leaflets, about 7cm long. Flowers are orange-yellow to red, in pendulous spikes to 50cm, with up to 50 flowers each to 25mm, and occur in spring. Cylindrical pods grow to 40cm long.

Type: Tree to 10m
Aspect: Full Sun/Part Shade
Soil: Adaptable
Habitat: Dry Sclerophyll

Special features:

- Attracts –
 - Bees
 - Birds
- Shade Tree
- Tolerates Light Frost