

Cordyline rubra (Red-fruited Palm Lily)

Palm-like, narrow, upright plant, often multi-trunked. Flowering occurs from summer, being lilac in colour. The fruit is a bright red berry. Has dark strap-like, green leaves that are streaked in rose-pink and have a contrasting red margin.

Type: Shrub to 4m
Aspect: Shade
Soil: Moist
Habitat: Wet Sclerophyll

Special features:

- Attracts –
 - Birds
- Bush Tucker Tree
- Attractive Foliage