

Cryptocarya glaucescens (Jackwood)

Rainforest tree with bark that is dark brown or reddish brown and often scaly. Flowers appear from October to December, being cream or pale green. Flowers are small and numerous in panicles. Ribbed or wrinkly, slightly flattened, black glossy fruit to 18mm, autumn to winter.

Type: Tree to 15+m
Aspect: Shade
Soil: Adaptable
Habitat: Dry Sclerophyll

Special features:

- Attracts –
  - Birds
  - Butterflies
- Fragrant Foliage
- Shade Tree
- Timber Tree