

Cupaniopsis anacardioides (Tuckeroo, Green Tamarind)

Small tree to 25m, common in coastal forests. Compound leaves with rounded leaflets. Small greenish-white flowers to 6mm, in panicles, winter to spring. Yellow to orange 3-lobed fruit to 15mm, splitting to reveal 3 black fruit, enclosed in orange to red aril. Hardy and salt spray tolerant. Good shade or street tree.

Type: Tree to 15+m
Aspect: Full sun/Part shade
Soil: Adaptable
Habitat: Coastal and Inland Rainforests

Special features:

- Attracts –
  - Birds
  - Butterflies
- Drought Tolerant
- Salt Tolerant
- Fire Retardant
- Shade Tree