

Diospyros Australis (Black Plum)

Small tree with slightly zig-zag, fine branchlets and elliptical leaves to 7cm, rounded at end and yellowish on the underside. Creamish-green 4-petalled flowers to 5mm, spring to summer. Separate male and female plants. Edible fruit is black, ovoid, 1.5cm long, seated in a receptacle, in summer.

Type: Tree 6-15m
Aspect: Filtered Sun/Shade
Soil: Moist
Habitat: Wet Sclerophyll

Special features:

- Attracts –
 - Butterflies
- Bush Tucker Plant
- ShadeTree