

Elaeocarpus kirtonii (White Quandong)

Buttressed tree to 2 metres in diameter. It grows in tropical, sub-tropical and warm temperate rainforests. New foliage pinkish. Old leaves turn red. Perfumed, white, fringed, bell-shaped flowers to 5mm, in racemes, summer to autumn. Pale blue ovoid fruit to 13mm, spring to summer. Tolerates light frost.

Type: Tree to 15+m
Aspect: Full Sun/Shade
Soil: Alluvial
Habitat: Dry Sclerophyll

Special features:

- Attracts –
 - Birds
- Light Frost Tolerant
- Timber Tree