

Eucalyptus carnea (Broad-leaved White Mahogany)

Grey brown fibrous bark (Stringybark). Thick textured dark green-blue leaves, frequently tatty, slightly paler below. Whitish flowers in groups of seven or more in umbels often clustered towards the end of branchlets in spring through summer. Woody fruits to 7mm x 10mm.

Type: Tree to 15+m
Aspect: Full Sun
Soil: Adaptable
Habitat: Dry Sclerophyll

Special features:

- Attracts –
  - Bees
  - Birds
  - Koalas
  - Possums
- Bush Medicine
- Bush Tucker
- Timber Tree