

Eucalyptus crebra (Narrow-leaved Ironbark)

Handsome tree. Hard, black, deeply-furrowed bark. Blueish-green foliage. Lovely cream flowers in winter to summer. Good honey and pollen source. Red, hard very durable timber. A common species in hilly terrain at lower altitudes, especially in drier areas. Woody fruits to 5mm x 4mm.

Type: Tree to 15+m
Aspect: Full sun
Soil: Adaptable
Habitat: Open Forest and Woodlands

Special features:

- Attracts –
 - Bats
 - Bees
 - Birds
 - Butterflies
 - Koalas
 - Possums
- Clay Tolerant
- Drought Tolerant
- Fire Resistant
- Timber Tree