

Eucalyptus grandis (Rose or Flooded Gum)

Tall tree to 50 metres with a straight trunk which may be two-thirds the total height. Smooth, uniformly white or greyish bark. Found along creeks on rainforest margins. Leaves alternate, dark, glossy to 16cm x 5cm, paler below. Woody fruits to 8mm x 7mm with stubby teeth. Dangerous large branches that can fall with no warning.

Type: Tree to 15+m
Aspect: Full sun
Soil: Adaptable
Moist Open Forest
Habitat: and Rainforest
Margins

Special features:

- Attracts –
 - Bees
 - Birds
 - Koalas
- Clay Tolerant
- Creek Species
- Fragrant Flowers