

Eucalyptus luehmanniana (Yellow Top Mallee Ash)

N.S.W.

Very attractive eucalyptus species with large, thick, grayish green leaves. The curved and drooping foliage with yellow stems adds to the attractiveness. Cream flowers in winter and spring. Threatened species. Grows in high rainfall areas on poor soils.

Type: Tree to 6m
Aspect: Full Sun
Soil: Well-drained
Habitat: Mallee

Special features:

- Attracts –
 - Bees
 - Birds
- Frost Tolerant
- Salt Tolerant