

Eucalyptus robusta (Swamp Mahogany)

Tree to 30m, usually in swampy areas close to the coast. Bark red-brown, rough, spongy. Leaves large, alternate, to 16cm x 5cm, dark green above, paler below. Large woody fruits to 16mm x 11mm. Widely planted as a timber tree overseas. White or cream flowers clustered in inflorescences of from seven to 13 flowers. Prime koala tree.

Type: Tree to 15+m
Aspect: Full sun
Soil: Moist/Clay to Sand
Habitat: Coastal Swamps

Special features:

- Attracts –
 - Bees
 - Birds
 - Koalas
- Timber Tree