

Ficus coronata (Creek Sandpaper Fig)

Tree to 15m along watercourses. Branchlets hairy. Leaves, alternate, serrate, to 20cm x 10cm, with sand-papery texture. Hairy, edible 20mm purple black figs grow on trunk and in branch axils all year, are sweet and tasty bush tucker.

Type: Tree to 15m
Aspect: Full/filtered Sun
Soil: Moist
Habitat: Creek Rainforest

Special features:

- Attracts –
 - Bats
 - Birds
 - Butterflies
- Bush Tucker
- Clay Tolerant
- Creek Species
- Indoor Plant