

Gahnia sieberiana (Red Fruited Sawsgedge)

Vigorous perennial, clumping habit, leaves have rough edges, black flower heads to 3 meters tall in spring to autumn. Shiny reddish-brown seeds. Nice feature plant and for dried flower arrangements. Good for erosion control.

Type: Grasses/Sedges
Aspect: Full Sun/Shade
Soil: Adaptable
Habitat: Dry Sclerophyll

Special features:

- Attracts –
 - Birds
 - Butterflies
 - Frogs