

Grevillea pteridifolia (Golden Grevillea)

Fast growing, short-lived, large shrub with grey-green, divided foliage (fern-like). Orange flowers (6-12mm long) in winter and spring. Used in producing many of the hybrid grevilleas.

Grevillea pteridifolia

Photos: P. G. Armstrong, G. & N. Sankowsky & T. Tapper

Type: Shrub to 6m
Aspect: Full Sun/Part Shade
Soil: Adaptable
Habitat: Dry Sclerophyll

Special features:

- Attracts –
 - Bees
 - Birds
- Bush Tucker