

Hakea actites (Wallum Hakea)

Erect multi-branched shrub with 10cm long needle-like foliage and white to pink flowers, in axillary clusters, in winter to spring, followed by unusual attractive, sharp-pointed, woody seedpods to 3.5cm. Very hardy species. Good protection for small birds.

Type: Shrub to 3m
Aspect: Full Sun/Part Shade
Soil: Moist
Habitat: Wallum/Dry Sclerophyll

Special features:

- Attracts –
 - Bees
 - Birds
- Salt Tolerant
- Screening Plant