

Lomandra hystrix (Creek Mat Rush)

Robust clumping plant to 1.5m, along creek banks. Leaves shiny, strap-like, to 1.5m long x 2cm. Tiny perfumed cream flowers in branched spikes, mainly in fours, spring and summer. Separate male and female plants. Excellent soil binder for banks. Very hardy.

Type: Grass to 1.5m
Aspect: Full sun/shade
Soil: Adaptable
Watercourses under
Habitat: Rainforest and
Open Forest

Special features:

- Attracts –
 - Bees
 - Birds
 - Butterflies
- Creek Species
- Drought Tolerant
- Frost Tolerant
- Salt Tolerant
- Fire Retardant
- Rockery Plant