

Melaleuca argentea (Silver Leaved Paperbark)

Usually grows into a medium-sized tree and is usually found along creeks and watercourses. Bark is papery. Cream flowers.

Melaleuca argentea

Photos: M. Hancock & T. Tapp

Type: Tree to 8m
Aspect: Full Sun
Soil: Adaptable
Habitat: Wetlands and Streambanks

Special features:

- Attracts –
 - Bees
 - Birds
 - Butterflies
- Clay Tolerant
- Fragrant Flowers
- Fragrant Foliage
- Coastal Plantings