

Melaleuca Formosa (Kingaroy/Cliff Bottlebrush)

Rare tree in western areas. Leaves alternate to 8.5cm x 10mm. New growth purplish. Weeping branches. Creamy-white 8cm x 4cm flower spikes in spring to summer. Woody seed capsules to 6mm.

Type: Tree to 4m
Aspect: Full Sun
Soil: Adaptable
Habitat: Dry Sclerophyll

Special features:

- Attracts –
 - Bees
 - Birds
 - Butterflies
- Drought Tolerant
- Frost Tolerant
- Rare Tree
- Street Tree
- Wind Tolerant