

Melaleuca salicina (White Bottlebrush)

Upright shrub to small tree to 10m often along watercourses. Bark grey and papery. Dense habit, narrow leaves to 10cm. Young growth is pink. Cylindrical flower spikes to 8cm long by 3cm diameter, mostly cream, rarely pink, occur in spring and summer. Capsules to 5mm.

Type:	Tree 4-10m
Aspect:	Full/filtered sun
Soil:	Moist
Habitat:	Open Forest to Rainforest Margins

Special features:

- Attracts –
  - Bats
  - Bees
  - Birds
  - Possums
- Clay Tolerant
- Drought Tolerant
- Frost Tolerant
- Salt Tolerant
- Fragrant Foliage
- Creek Species