

Melaleuca sieberi (Small-leaved Paperbark)

Shrub or tree to 10m, in moist areas and eucalypt forests. Bark papery. Leaves alternate, crowded, to 20mm x 4mm, aromatic when crushed. 25mm white flower spikes in spring and after rain. Seed capsules woody to 5mm. Withstands periodic inundation.

Type: Tree 6-10m
Aspect: Full sun
Soil: Moist
Habitat: Wet areas

Special features:

- Attracts –
 - Bees
 - Birds
- Fragrant Foliage