

Melaleuca styphelioides (Prickly Paperbark)

Paper-barked tree in wet areas. Slightly twisted leaves are ovate, pointed, 4-25mm long. Bears creamy-white flowers in cylindrical spikes in summer. Woody seed capsules to 6mm. Very hardy in poorly drained or drier situations. Neat foliage and attractive bark.

Type: Tree 6-10m
Aspect: Full sun
Soil: Moist heavy soils
Habitat: Moist areas

Special features:

- Attracts –
  - Bees
  - Birds