

Melia azedarach (White Cedar)

Deciduous, rainforest shade tree often on margins. Leaves alternate, compound, with up to 70 leaflets per leaf, terminal ones largest. White to mauve perfumed flowers to 20mm, in large panicles, spring. Ovoid yellow fruit to 15mm, poisonous to stock, food for cockatoos. Very easily grown in most soils. Alternative to Jacaranda Tree.

Type: Tree 15+m
Aspect: Full/filtered sun
Soil: Adaptable
Habitat: Rainforest

Special features:

- Attracts –
  - Bees
  - Birds
- Clay Tolerant
- Drought Tolerant
- Frost Tolerant
- Salt Tolerant
- Shade Tree
- Timber Tree
- Winter sun