

Myoporum parvifolium (Creeping Boobialla)

Prostrate groundcover with fleshy green leaves and reddish stems, spreading to 3 metres. White, pink or mauve star-shaped flowers in spring and summer. The succulent, rounded fruits are yellowish-white and up to 8.5 mm in diameter. Adaptable and hardy plant but prefers a well-drained sunny spot.

Type: Ground Cover
Aspect: Full Sun
Soil: Well-drained
Habitat: Dry Sclerophyll

Special features:

- Attracts –
 - Butterflies
- Drought Tolerant
- Frost Tolerant
- Salt Tolerant
- Erosion Control
- Fire Retardant
- Rockery Plant