

Parachidendron pruinatum (Snow Wood)

Tree to 15m. Heads of fragrant, white to pale yellow flowers to 20mm, spring to summer. Flattened, twisted pod to 12cm long, red or orange inside. Black flattened seeds. An excellent small tree for street plantings, parks or as a feature in a larger garden. The reddish trunk and lacy pinnate leaves give a pleasing appearance.

Type: Tree to 15m
Aspect: Full Sun/Shade
Soil: Well-drained
Habitat: Dry Sclerophyll and Riverine

Special features:

- Attracts –
 - Bees
 - Birds
 - Butterflies
- Bush Tucker
- Fragrant Flowers
- Park Tree
- Timber Tree