

Petalostigma triloculare (Coastal Quinine Bush)

Shrub to 5metres on stony or sandy soils with greyish trunk and soft, oval shaped, glossy leaves. Bears small, yellow flowers, summer to autumn. 10mm orange to reddish fruits on female plants. Hardy but frost tender.

Type: Shrub to 5m
Aspect: Full/filtered sun
Soil: Adaptable
Habitat: Coastal Forest and Streambanks

Special features:

- Attracts –
 - Birds
 - Butterflies
- Salt Tolerant
- Screen Plant