

Piper Hederaceum (Giant Pepper Vine)

Rainforest vine with zig zag branchlets and smooth dark Leaves. Young plants have broad heart-shaped leaves and stems with adhesive roots. Creamy inconspicuous flowers. Ovoid fruit forming a cylinder cluster – red when matured.

Type: Vine
Aspect: Part Shade
Soil: Moist
Habitat: Dry Sclerophyll

Special features:

- Attracts –
 - Birds
- Bush Tucker
- Bush Medicine

