

Pittosporum revolutum (Yellow Pittosporum)

Spindly shrub to 3m. Leaves alternate or in whorls of 3 or 4 to 15cm x 6cm, usually rusty-hairy below. Lightly scented 5-petalled creamy-yellow flowers to 15mm, in terminal clusters, winter to spring. Fruit rough, warty, to 30mm, containing many showy red-brown seeds in summer. Good plant for a small garden.

Type: Shrub 1-3m
Aspect: Full Sun/Part Shade
Soil: Adaptable
Open Forest,
Habitat: Woodland or Rainforest

Special features:

- Attracts –
 - Birds
- Bush Tucker Plant
- Frost Tolerant