

Pittosporum spinescens (Orange Thorn)

Upright, open, evergreen shrub with small leaves clustered on short branches that often terminate in a sharp point. Small, solitary white flowers appear in the spring. The plant produces edible fruits, 2–3 cm in diameter.

Type: Shrub to 2m
Aspect: Full Sun/Part Shade
Soil: Adaptable
Habitat: Dry Sclerophyll

Special features:

- Attracts –
  - Bees
  - Birds
  - Butterflies
- Bush Tucker
- Frost Tolerant