

Polyscias australiana (Ivory Basswood)

Small tree usually with palms near streams. Young shoots densely rusty-hairy. Leaves alternate, pinnate, with 3-19 opposite leaflets, one terminal, each to 27cm long, glabrous, paler below. Small white flowers on spike. Purplish-black spherical fruit to 9mm, in panicles.

Type: Small Tree
Aspect: Part Shade
Soil: Moist
Habitat: Wet Sclerophyll

Special features:

- Attracts –
 - Bees
 - Birds