

Rhodosphaera rhodantha (Deep Yellowwood, Tulip Satinwood)

Rainforest tree, milky sap from cut petioles and branchlets. Leaves alternate, compound with 5-11 leaflets, each to 10cm long, sometimes finely hairy. Pink, 5-petaled, 5mm flowers in terminal panicles in spring followed by iridescent, brown fruit to 10mm. Separate male and female plants.

Type: Tree to 15+m
Aspect: Full/filtered sun
Soil: Adaptable
Habitat: Rainforest

Special features:

- Attracts –
 - Bees
- Clay Tolerant
- Frost Tolerant
- Creek Species
- Indoor Plant
- Timber Tree