

Sterculia quadrifida (Peanut Tree, Red-fruited Kurrajong)

Deciduous tree with large, leaves, heart shaped at the base, small yellow, lemon scented flowers, 1cm long, in summer, and large, very ornamental orange/red fruit to 8cm long, red inside, woody, with black, edible, peanut-flavoured seeds inside which are traditional bush tucker.

Type: Tree 15+m
Aspect: Full/filtered sun
Soil: Adaptable
Habitat: Rainforest

Special features:

- Attracts –
 - Birds
- Bush Tucker Plant
- Clay Tolerant
- Shade Tree
- Foliage emergency stock fodder