

Syzygium luehmannii (Cherry Satinash, Riberry)

Tree to 30 m with bright pink new growth. Lanceolate, very glossy leaves to 6cm, paler below, fruity when crushed. Bears white, 10mm, fluffy flowers in spring and summer. Edible fruits are red, pear-shaped, 1.2cm long. Hardy, outstanding tree which may be used as specimen or street tree. Can be pruned.

Type: Tree 15+m
Aspect: Full/filtered sun
Soil: Adaptable
Habitat: Adaptable

Special features:

- Attracts –
 - Bees
 - Birds
- Bush Tucker Plant
- Screening or Windbreak Plant
- Shade Tree
- Timber Tree