

Vitex acuminata (Black Plum/Scrub Vitex)

Tree or shrub, 3-15 m high. Flowers are blue-purple/white-cream in January to December (mainly October-December). Fruits globular-ellipsoid or somewhat obovoid, glabrous, about 4.5-14 x 3-8 mm Grows mainly on sandstone or laterite. Often in gullies.

Type: Tree to 6m
Aspect: Full Sun/Part Shade
Soil: Adaptable
Habitat: Wet Sclerophyll

Special features:

- Attracts –
 - Bees