

Vitex trifolia var. trifolia variegata (Coastal Vitex)

Uncommon, twiggy shrub on tidal riverbanks and behind mangrove areas. Leaves opposite trifoliate, leaflets to 9cm x 4cm, whitish below, occasionally simple. Branched panicles of 5mm purple flowers all year. Fruit globose to ovoid, 5-6 mm long, black or bluish-black when mature.

Type: Small tree to 5m
Aspect: Full Sun/Part Shade
Soil: Adaptable
Habitat: Riverine/Coastal

Special features:

- Attracts –
 - Bees
 - Butterflies
- Bush Medicine
- Hedge Plant
- Salt Tolerant

